

The Ford International Weekly

THE DEARBORN INDEPENDENT

By the Year $1.50

Dearborn, Michigan, April 30, 1921

Single
Copy Ten Cents

IS EINSTEIN A PLAGIARIST?

Within Sacred Precincts of Diplomacy

By George A. Schreiner

War-time stories written by a correspondent who was behind the curtain of the Central Powers' stage

Our "Acres of Diamonds" Zona Gale and Friendship Village

Government Helplessness in Our Foreign Trade

Cutting Up Old Circus Money The Democracy of Durham

And the many other splendid features and illustrations that go to make up each week's issue of America's fastest growing weekly, The Dearborn Independent

JEW ADMITS BOLSHEVISM!